

April 10, 2011

The Tennessee Society of Gastroenterology Nurses and Associates (TSGNA) would like to invite you and your company to exhibit at our 30th annual education program. This will be held on October 21, 22 and 23, 2011 at the Crowne Plaza in Knoxville, Tennessee. The exhibits will be open on Saturday, October 22 at times to be determined.

The TSGNA course offers your company a unique opportunity to interact effectively with the nurses and associates that utilize your products and services. You are invited to participate in one of the most complete and fastest growing local exhibits of products in the field of Gastroenterology and Endoscopy. Cost of the exhibit space is $750.00.

TSGNA provides a wide range of partnership opportunities, including financial sponsorships of speaker honorariums, course related items (bags, name tags and syllabus on cds) food functions, as well as the opportunity to make a contribution to the scholarship fund. This money enables local TSGNA members to attend the national conference offered once a year.

While TSGNA greatly appreciates and acknowledges all support, donations of $250 and higher:

Platinum – Greater than $1,500	Gold – $1,001 to $1,500
Silver -- $501 to $1,000	Bronze -- $250 to $500

TSGNA members value the leading edge technical input from vendors and the professional relationships established over the years. We look forward to your continuing involvement in our learning and development regarding new products and services, through your participation in our annual course.

A block of rooms will be held at the Crowne Plaza. If you need to book a room, please advise the desk you are with TSGNA's Fall Educational course to get the discounted room rate.

Please complete the enclosed application and contract and return no later than July 31, 2011. Your prompt response is important, as our exhibit space is limited. Additional information and instructions will follow upon receipt of your application.
